For the short time I knew Erica, what I remember most about her was her bright smile and her great personality. She could just walk into a room and brighten it up on the dreariest of days. I know she will be missed by all that knew her.

I met Erica at a real young age in life and we instantly became best friends. I hated going to my dads house every other weekend but seeing her made it all worth it. No matter the time or the situation she was always there never judged just truly loved me for me. She had a laugh of no one else her smile was so bright and beautiful she would light up a room a heart of gold all them freckles made her that much more beautiful. We use to tickle eachother to fall asleep which actually worked... I am truly blessed and grateful for our friendship and she will definitely be missed. I love you Erica until we meet again 🥹❤️ This pic is the last one she sent me and even tho the circumstances were not well she still put that beautiful smile I was talking about on, STRONG is an understament.
