Uncle Tim, I remember going to your house down the street from the church my great grandma's funeral was at and where she was buried. I remember thinking how hard it was to be so close to her but you said you would be there for me and to not think about it being so sad. And you even said, that you were my favorite uncle and I needed happy memories with you and not sad ones. So we played a few board games and me and Ricky would play video games. I remember you singing along to bush in the driveway at our house and dancing all crazy and getting me and Riley to jam with you. When I was an adult and kicked down hard by life and lost you and aunt Tina were there to give me and the kids a roof over our heads. You took Gage in your arms and said that was your boy. And he loved you so much. I have Pictures of you laying on the floor hanging out with him. And Casey's face when you hung the swing up for her to swing with nana. You always looked our for those you loved and was quick to drop anything to lend a hand. You were an amazing uncle, an even more amazing role model and a perfect friend. You are missed so much. Say hi to mom for me. Devon Bryn

I've had a lot of memories of Tim and the family. The best one that I remember is Tim n Tina's vow renewal. I was so happy to be apart of that. And to see how happy they were to be renewing their vows. He will be missed but never forgotten.
