There are few guys that were as dedicated to their country, family, job, and God...than Ron Pearce.. I was fortunate enough to meet Ron in many capacities... in his work in fast food, furniture, and mostly bowling. Ron loved bowling and was an amazing secretary and officer of the leagues he bowled on at Northway Lanes. We were fortunate to have such a fan of bowling and our business. I revered Ron for his love of bowling and especially for his love of his wife Nancy. God bless you Ron and may your perfect game come in heaven. Northway Lanes and the bowling community will miss you my friend! Mike Jacobs Friend and previous owner of Northway Lanes
