Leonard was a dear friend, and played my stealing for hearts. Steel Guitar show in Maryland for almost all 15 years, he was not only a kind soul, and a tremendous player on both Guitar and Steel Guitar, but one of the nicest people you'll ever meet. Leonard, you will be dearly missed, see you soon, my friend 🎸🎸🎸🎸🎸🎸🎸

L.T THANK YOU FOR BEING SUCH A GREAT FRIEND TO MY PARENTS Rocky and Dotty Riedel. To the family you have my deepest condolences. LT WAS a great man and a wonderful person who loved what he did and never sat still. He knew Jesus as his lord and savior and I know he is up in heaven happy and hopefully playing with the 101. May God bless your family. And may God comfort you.

My Pappas was an asst pastor at four square church in Hanover. As a little girl Granny and Pappas took us to church. I loved hearing Birdie (Bertie) play the accordion. Several years back, could be 10 , she stopped at my parents house when we had a yard sale and she brought Leonard with her. I remember him telling us of all his musical adventures, people he played with, people he played for etc. T his morning as I read the obituary in the merchandiser that conversation many years ago came back to me. I couldn't remember what his name was and I don't even know if I ever knew what Birdie's last name was. In Leonard's 97 years, I got to be part of a one hour conversation with him that has stuck with me. I am sorry for the families loss. Julie Brooks Smith
