Alice was a quiet yet approachable and kind hearted lady. Her and Phil were in every church service, at Faith Baptist, that they could make it to. I remember her her sweet potatoes at the Thanksgiving potluck, yum! The games and snacks at their house. I was so surprised when she told me she changed the oil in their car! She was such a lady I couldn't imagine her under a car draining dirty oil. Its hard to feel sad over Alice's passing. She's free! She knew Jesus as her Savior. When she closed her blue eyes the last time on earth and opened them in heaven I can only imagine how they sparkled! Hard times were over. I will see you again, dear lady. Congratulations on your highest promotion! ❤️❤️

I'm so sorry you lost your beloved mother. I'm grateful to have known her. She was so sweet and loving. No longer trapped in her failing body she is now with the Lord in a new heavenly body. Rest in peace Grandma.
