This has been the worst year ever! I can only imagine how much pain you're feeling right now, I am so sorry for your loss. Sad Conan and I didn't had a chance to meet your lil angel 🥰 before he got his wings. I'm praying for an abundance of strength and sending lots of love to you both. ❤️

My heart is with all of you grieving the loss of this sweet boy. He was lucky to have so much love surrounding him during his short time on this Earth. He will always be with you, and waiting for you to join him someday. You will see him again and I hope that brings you some comfort. Praying for strength and peace for all during this difficult time. Always, always here for you. 💜
