Estevan Guillermo Hernandez-Rivera

DEC 29, 1989 - MAR 30, 2020

Estevan Guillermo Hernandez-Rivera (30) was born in Muskegon, MI on December 29th of 1989. Estevan passed away on March 30th of 2020. He is survived by his parents, Guillermo and Michelle Hernandez, as well as his siblings, Jesus (Ashley) Alvarado, Enrique (Emily) Rivera, Anna Hernandez-Rivera and nieces, Audrina and Alaina. He is preceded in death by two grandmothers, Theresa Rivera and Sara Camiro Santos, and his best friend Jeff Scarborough. Estevan loved traveling with his friends to play disc golf, going to dubstep concerts, reading, and cooking. He was very social and loved hanging out with his friends. Cremation has taken place and a Celebration of Life Gathering will be held a later date.

As I still grieve for my first son, we have all lost another beautiful, wonderful soul. Not a day has passed that I dont remember, Stavi was there at Jeffs celebration of life and now they will again be back together. I pray for his family as we all grieve. This is another loss we will never get past. Please accept my deepest heartfelt condolences and I am here anytime for you if I may help. May the Heavenly father bring you blessings in this unexpected loss.

My deepest condolences, sympathy and above all love to the family. I recall what a cute and happy little boy you were. Marcus wished for brothers like Jesus had. I thank you and your family for showing Marcus so much love!. I will never again ride down Dyson street without thinking of that cute little chubby boy with the big smile. Rest on.

Stavi! It's been years since we have talked or seen each other however there was a time we were very close many years ago in high school. I do not forget the way you were always so kind and to others. I remember your Jokes and how funny you were and always making me laugh. May you be walking the streets of Gold now. Prayers to your family. ❤️❤️
