Man Im gonna miss stopping by to visit your ornery butt and then sharing stories, tears & Laughter!! I know you missed it bad, but Glad you were able to ride your cool bikes when you could out to enjoy some Delicious Pigroast & great memories shared with family & friends. I to remember when you used to sell your homemade Jerky scooby snacks like bags of weed at Pats where Ive met a few cool people through you and some great times! After our last visit I worried, but so glad you are pain free now and able to bring your loving heart to be with grandma again in heaven. Miss & love you Uncle Lee. RIP. ♥

As you close your eyes in rest, may all your pain and troubles be lost forever. May you find paradise and a world of eternal life. . . I know you'll be passing out all of your delicious jerky 'scooby snacks' in Heaven, in place of a Bud Light. 😊 Family, friends & I have all enjoyed the good times we've spent together at Pat's Roadhouse & listening to the boys play. I was told that you would challenge them to play songs they didn't know & one of your favorite's was 'Runnin' Down A Dream.' Growing up as a kid, I always looked forward to visiting with you at the house on Langeland, excited when Mom & Dad said we're stopping by Uncle Lee's. So many memories.. Always admired your beautiful woodwork and your passion for it (horse was my favorite), the old Night Stalker you built, and you always made the best smoked salmon.~ You will remain FOREVER in my heart. Rest In Peace, My Dear Uncle.

Lee Lee, You were a great brother. I will truly miss you & our chats on the phone. I called your phone last night just to hear your voice, got your answering machine and it broke me up. Yessss, of course I left a message 🗣️ I will travel to Michigan to say farewell. I looked again at the silly card you sent me for Christmas 2018-2019 I already bought you a singing Birthday card. I know you would love it. I got you a Moose keychain for your Bike "The Moose" A Bear belt buckle & some Fall towels for your kitchen. Damn Lee Lee, I am going to miss you big time 😭 Huggs to Mama & Dad for me. I love you, Sis Rosie ((Mr. Biggs is good and being taken care of, he misses you))
