For years he would send funny texts and just make sure everything was going well. Going to miss having that. Bob was a constant reminder to me that amazing caring people exist. He was the type of person you could depend on when you were going thru hard times and with Bob some how youd go from feeling down to laughing. The only thing bigger than his sense of humor was his kindness. I remember simply mentioning wanting to buy a certain computer and he INSISTED on calling the store for me to make sure they have it before I went to get it.

Bobby's presence in the life of all who knew him was undeniable. He was loud, joyous, and filled with loving energy. Everything he did in life he did with passionate gusto and unmatched exuberance. Each of our lives can be measured like a pebble dropped in a millpond setting off a ripple of water the touches others, Bobby was more like a rock thrown in a millpond that sent out waves that changed others. I love you Bobby and I'll forever miss you. May God's blessings and love help guide and heal those who're left behind. Give my mom and dad a hug for me kiddo, see you soon.
