I attended high school with Patti and Tom and witnessed their love from the very beginning, They were my dearest friends in the 1960s and I owe a debt of gratitude to them both for "staying the course" with me through the tough times in my life. In 1971 I met my "knight in shining armour", we married and had the most fantastic fairy tale lifes so much like Patti and Tom had. They are reunited now in Gods world, as I hope that I will also be with my dear Joe. Rest in peace my friends. See you soon.
