John Begert was like an older brother tome in the Coast guard District Office in Seattle. He helped me stay focused on my duties. I was young and when your that age its all about your social life and activities and one is always thinking about girls and I was no different. He pulled me through a dificult time when I lost my head over a girl and made a fool of myself. I went for a career in an electronics factory but did my 20 as a part time reservist and crossed pathes with him again once or twice. He was extremely dedicated to the Coast Guard and his family in the Louisville region. He will be missed by many of his fellow CoastGuardsmen from the 13th and 7th district

Although i didnt know John personally I do know the significance of his presence in his daughter Jennys life. He was for sure her rock. I was honored to be by his side when he took his last breath and entered heavens gates. His last days were peaceful and comfortable. To assure him that his mantle of parenthood was both received and accepted for Jenny was a blessing for my life. As i look through his many medals and certificates of achievements and listen to the kind words of others, i can only have honor and admiration for a man who live a life full of passion and dedication to those he cared about. Rest in the arms of Jesus dear brother, we will meet someday and may i do my best to stand with your beloved Jenny and help her continue your legacy. My prayers for all of Johns family and friends in this time of mourning and home going celebration.

I worked with Begert for quite a while at RCC. He tried his very best to teach me the rules and regulations, policies and procedures. Tried being the key word! With his help, a long with several others, I somehow managed to make it off probation. (That decision is probably still questioned by some.) We had some good times and I always considered him a friend! My deepest condolences go out to his family and friends as they grieve his passing. I pray you find comfort knowing he is at piece. No longer in pain but safe in the arms of our Heavenly Father.

Prayers to the family. There are many conditions far more tragic than death. Going Home is not one of them, rejoice in Johns being with our Heavenly Father. I worked with John at KSR and RCC.
