My deepest sympathy to you all . My reunion with your Dad after so many lost years was truly a blessing.I admired how he never talked about himself or his health. He was always positive and talked like he was going to live forever.We talk and laughed about old times and he spoke so fondly of his family.I will miss those chats and the laughter but will always remember that we have to live each day as it comes with joy and a positive attitude.My love to you all.

Uncle My. I know after many years I was extatic to have found you again. You had always been an important part of my life growing up and God blessed me with you again to short if a time ago. Our reunion was way too short. I will miss you so very much! Growing up you and Aunt Jo always showed me what family really meant and was. To this day i try to pattern myself after the two of you with my own kids. I thank you for that. I love you and miss you. ❤️
