Our fire pit parties wont be the same this year without you Steve. We had so many good times with you through out the years. You were one of Toms best friends and a big teddy bear to me. My kids Ben and Brooke adored you when they had the chance to see you. We are so sorry Marge has to live on so many years with out you. We will see you again sweet friend one day. Love, Tom and Jan Naperala Cooper too.

Please accept our heart felt condolences on Steves passing. We always talked about getting together and reminiscing about the time we were kids enjoying the fish fries in uncle Johns back yard while uncle Leo and the other uncles and aunts visited. How did that time slip away from us?
